

COUNTRY TREASURES

Before You Go

A photograph of a dark, rocky cave interior. The walls and ceiling are covered in rough, textured rock. Warm, yellowish light illuminates the scene, likely from a small light source in the distance. A small, yellow, rectangular object, possibly a box or a piece of equipment, is visible on the ground in the middle ground. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and adventurous.

How does a surprise road trip work?

Pick a Date

We recommend doing the trip within 6 months of receiving this road trip. Pay close attention to the 'When To Go' within the 'Navigating the Road' section of this booklet.

Get Ready

The only requirement is having a vehicle, GPS and a driver. The trip is completely self-guided, so nothing needs to be booked in advance.

Check Updates

Before leaving, please check travel updates on our website. This will provide you with any major changes to the itinerary.

Pack Your Bag

Please refer to the 'What to Pack' list in this booklet for items we recommend bringing with you.

Hit the Road!

Don't open the first envelope until you're ready to leave. Once you're finished at the first stop, you can open the second envelope. Four stops are included within your road trip.

Your day ahead! Without giving away too many details.

We often include a variety of recommendations at each stop. You do not have to go to all of them, pick and choose what works best for you and your travel mates. If you can't get through all of the stops during the day - come back and explore them at a later date!

DETAILED ITINERARY

Questions?

If you have any questions before your trip, please send us an email to questions@guesswheretrips.com. We try to get back to all email inquiries within one business day.

Please note: we are out of the office over the weekend.

Land Acknowledgement

We recognize that some of the stops listed in this trip date back to a time when not everyone was free.

As we acknowledge slavery and its impact on our history, we recognize the profound inequalities and systemic racism it has bred. This horrific institution dehumanized millions, leaving lasting social and economic consequences. Confronting these truths allows us to reflect, foster dialogue, and work towards a more just society. As you travel, we encourage you to inquire about this history, and ask sites to prominently display their history and its ongoing impact, ensuring it is neither overlooked nor diminished.

The Guess Where Trips Team

Have fun, and be safe!
