How does a surprise road trip work?

Pick a Date

We recommend doing the trip within 6 months of receiving this road trip. Pay close attention to the 'When To Go' within the 'Navigating the Road' section of this booklet.

Get Ready

Check Updates

Before leaving, please check travel updates on our website. This will provide you with any major changes to the itinerary.

Pack Your Bag

We often include a variety of recommendations at each stop. You do not have to go to all of them, pick and choose what works best for you and your travel mates. If you can't get through all of the stops during the day - come back and explore them at a later date!
